Roblox uses multiple methods of advertising. They first started advertising on websites like Nickelodeon, but they have moved to focusing on social media sites like Facebook and Twitter.[66] Roblox also primarily advertises at gaming conventions such as E3 and Minecon. Roblox has an official YouTube channel on which they occasionally stream live events called "Developer Live", where Roblox employees give sneak peeks of upcoming features.[67] They have also recently released a list of YouTubers that are apart of their Developer Program called the "Roblox Ambassador Program". These YouTubers are able to test new features in Roblox before anyone else with the exception of Google employees.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for being very difficult to use and has many bugs within the site interface itself, problems which seem to go unresolved by the development team despite repeated complaints over a number of years. Although the website's interface is not difficult to use, it has become more complex over the years with features such as video editing with a dedicated program and large amounts of unnecessary superfluous features. Some of the features include: UIs for uploading and viewing custom models, importing music, applications, and sounds; importing sounds from WAV files; creating galleries; creating art sheets; creating an unlimited amount of variations for models by changing their scale and pose; adding animations to models (e.g. walking); creating global themes which change every time you go into a game or lobby; creating global music tracks in . ROBLOX's interface has also become extremely frustrating, with a lot of features being inaccessible and hidden because of the aforementioned complexity.
